Civil Action No. 3:12cv279

CONSENT ORDER

WHEREAS, Plaintiff Rachel Simms, indicates that she would oppose the Defendant's motion to compel arbitration, but in the interest of judicial economy and with the agreement of the Defendant, nonetheless agrees to arbitrate her claims before JAMS following the dismissal of this matter.

Therefore, upon agreement of the parties and for good cause shown, the above-styled civil action is hereby DISMISSED without prejudice so that the parties may proceed before JAMS.

It is so ORDERED.
